

NEW!

Student Committee

2024-2025

The purpose of the Student Committee is to enhance students' learning, awareness, and application of cultural humility as well as engage students in an inclusive community of critical self-reflection and professional growth. The Student Committee is open to undergraduate and graduate Student NBASLH members, and is student-led. The four pillars of cultural humility are lifelong learning, self-reflection, mutual partnerships, and institutional accountability.

Undergraduate and graduate NBASLH student members are welcome to join. We will meet once a month starting in October 2024.

Responsibilities & Activities

Promote the Cultural Humility Task Force Programs and Events

- Connect with student affiliates by speaking at affiliate events
- Send information about CHAP, Conference, Task Force and NBASLH TALKs
- The deadline to apply to the CHAP Program is August 26h
- The Cultural Humility Conference is October 5th 9am-5pm E.T

Educate Students on Cultural Humility and its Four Pillars

- Present an introduction on Cultural Humility at student affiliate meetings
- Create a NBASLH TALKs Panel sharing lessons learned about cultural responsiveness in CSD from a student perspective
- Create a resource library for all students to access and discuss content
- Engage in book clubs, movie nights, or other learning experiences

Empowering Students to Create Change on College Campuses

- Support existing affiliates and foster connection between them as they educate members
- Encourage students to start new affiliates
- Collaborate with student affiliates to create Cultural Humility focused educational and social events
- Create dialogue with CSD Departments to provide and expand courses on these topics, especially at the undergraduate level

